This is in response to Applicants' election filed April 23, 2001.

Applicant's election of Group I, claims 1-6, in Paper No. 7 is acknowledged.

Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, the phrase "wherein ... demultiplexed" on lines 2-3 is vague because the manner in which signals are selected and/or demultiplexed have not been clearly defined. It appears that the claimed structure of the claimed invention comprising an analog bus with a plurality of parallel signal busses. The above mentioned phrase is considered a statement of intended use and/or intended method of using the claimed signal busses because it does not provide a further structure/limitation of the claimed invention. How and in what manner is the claimed invention built by an ordinary skill in the art with the above given information? Similar citation in claims 2-6 is similarly vague.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 2878

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-6, as understood by examiner, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Acampora et al 4,827,336 or Lee 5,568,203.

Acampora et al disclose an analog bus (the color matrix signals from the television camera, the analyzers and/or from the controller) having a plurality of parallel signal busses, wherein the signals are selected (coded, analyzed) onto the busses prior to being demultiplexed by demultiplexers (Figures 2 and 5-9). The intended method of using and/or intended use statement of are allowed to pre-charge, reading, selected, multiplexed and demultiplexed are inherent in apparatus claim.

Lee discloses a system for estimating real time motion comprising at least an analog bus (from previous blocks PBs) having a plurality of parallel signal busses, wherein the signals are selected onto the busses prior to being demultiplexed by demultiplexers (110, 140). The intended use statement, as discussed above, is inherently include.
